[NUMB. 800.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY September 4th, to MONDAY September 11th, 1749.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for April laſt. Foreign Hiſtory.

ITALY.

THE Merchants at Leghorn have preſented the Emperor a Scheme for eſtabliſhing a Trade between Tuſcany and the Eaſt-Indies, by Ships, which ſhould take in Part of their Cargoes at Trieſte, and Part at Leghorn, and make their Imports into both theſe Places. This Scheme has been approved, and the Emperor has bought three Ships in England, for the Service of this new E. India Company, two of which are the Kingſton and Harwich, which laſt is arrived at Leghorn.

The K. of Sardinia, who is no leſs ſollicitous than other Princes, for the Welfare and Proſperity of his Subjects, to which Commerce is ſo greatly conducive, has declare Nice, St. Oſpicio, and Villa-Franca free Ports.

The Infant and new Duke, Don Philip, has made his ſolemn Entry into the Cities of Parma and Placenza, with great Demonſtrations of Joy by the Inhabitants, who expect, doubtleſs, great Eaſe and Advantage from a Sovereign of the Ducal Blood of Parma, whoſe Eſtabliſhment has coſt Spain above 150,000,000 of Piaſtres, and France 120,000,000 of Livres.

The Duke of Modena is alſo fully reinſtated in his Dominions.

The Prince of Ligne-moy has diſperſed a warm Proteſtation, renewing his Claim to the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily.

AUSTRIAN NETHERLANDS.

Prince Charles of Lorrain made his Entry into Bruſſels, the 23d Inſtant, in Quality of Governor-General of theſe Provinces, with great Pomp and Magnificence. This City and ſeveral others being much expoſed by the Demolition of the Fortifications of Mons and St. Ghiſlain, a Reſolution is taken to fortify them, to which Uſe the 500,000 Crowns heretofore paid to the Dutch Gariſons in the Barrier Towns, is to be applied. As the French ſtill keep Poſſeſſion of ſome Places along the Lys and Scheld, which were yielded to Auſtria by the Treaties of Utrecht and Raſtadt, Commiſſaries will be appointed to ſettle the Boundaries between France and the Low-Countries.

Foreign Advices. From the GENT.'s MAGAZINE, for May laſt.

FROM Ruſſia, that Propoſals have been laid before the Miniſtry, by ſome Merchants of Archangel, for opening a beneficial Trade from thence to Japan, by a N.E. Paſſage, very practicable, tho' one has been ſo often attempted in vain by the Engliſh and Dutch.

From Italy. Naples, April 29. A dangerous Tumult happened here on Account of the Farms; and it was ſcarcely appeaſed, but another of the ſame kind, tho' more dangerous, ſucceeded it at Palermo, the Capital of Sicily, which for two Days was expoſed to the moſt frightful Evils of popular Fury, in which the Superintendant of the Cuſtoms was maſſacred, and the Viceroy narrowly eſcaped. At laſt the Gariſon, tho' much inferior in Number, exerted themſelves ſo as to oblige the Mutineers to return to their Duty.—Thro' a ſtrange Malignity in the Air, Numbers of People have their Eye-ſight extremely impaired, and at Barni 200 Perſons are actually become blind.

From France. The King having in the Edict for ſuppreſſing the 10th Penny, enjoined one for the 20th, for an indeterminate Number of Years, the Chambers of the Parliament aſſembled on Sunday Morning, and the firſt Preſident and two Deputies were ſent to remonſtrate againſt it, to the King; but as his Majeſty would give no Ear to them, they were obliged to reſtiger in on Monday, and it was publiſhed next Day.

In Holland, they can think of no better Method of raiſing a Revenue in room of the aboliſhed Farms, than a Lottery, in which all muſt take Tickets according to what they paid of former Taxes, and are to comfort themſelves with the Hope of Prizes, which being paid 11,000,000 of Florins will remain for the Uſe of the State.

Aix-la-Chappelle. After the Treaty of Peace was ſigned here, Toaſts paſſed among the Plenipotentiaries on the joyful Occaſion. The French Miniſter drank The Sun, his Maſter, who illuminates the World; the Spaniſh Miniſter drank The Moon; upon which Ld Sandwich ſaid, "Gentlemen, you have taken all the brilliant "Toaſts; let us, however, drink JOSHUA, my Maſter, who cauſed the Sun and Moon to ſtand ſtill."

Dunkirk. Our Fortifications towards the Sea are to be demoliſhed immediately, an Engliſh Engineer being arrived to ſee it executed.

Foreign Hiſtory. From the Weſtminſter Journal, of June 10*th*.

THE Letters from Sweden run in the old Strain, of moſt upright and pacific Intentions, attended with the moſt reſpectable and formidable Armaments both by Land and Sea. They aſſure us that their Gallies, well equipped and ready for Buſineſs, will in a ſhort time amount to upwards of eighty; beſides a great Number of lighter Veſſels, capable of mounting Guns, and taking on board Marines as well as Sailors.

At Hamburgh the Diſcourſe is more poſitive than ever, that an Engliſh Squadron is expected in the Baltic this Summer: But if this Squadron is not to ſail from hence till Auguſt, as the ſame Advices intimate, upon the Authority of Letters ſaid to be received from London, it can have but a ſhort Seaſon to ſtay in thoſe Seas, which are early and long rendered unnavigable every Year by the Froſt.

In our laſt we took ſome notice of myſterious Intimations concerning the Journey of the young Pretender; and our own Prints, as well as the foreign, have ſince endeavoured to ſtrike ſome new Matter out of this Riddle. 'This Baltic Fleet, ſay the Hamburgh Newſpapers, is not ſo much deſigned to protect the Ruſſians, as to war[illegible] againſt a certain Project, which the Swedes might probably [illegible]in Hand.' What this Project ſhould be, we muſt leave other[illegible]queſs: And what the Projects of Charles XII were, a little before his Death, when his Miniſters were arreſted at London and the Hague, there are many that now remember.

But the laſt Letters from Paris ſeem to deſtroy all Rumours concerning the Journey above-mention'd, and inform us that Letters have been received by the French Court, with certain Advice that the young Adventurer is now in Poland;—tho' in what part of that Kingdom, they do not intimate.

The annual Miracle, which has long been exhibited at Naples, of the Liquefaction of St. Januarius's Blood, having this Year failed either for want of due Care in the Compoſition, or of Dexterity in applying the neceſſary Heat, or becauſe the Prieſts of that Country have ſome Point to carry with Prince or People; a Courſe of nine Days Devotion has been enjoined by the Cardinal Archbiſhop, in order to prevail on the Patron Saint to bleed more freely the next time. But while this ſolemn Mockery was going forwards, a real Calamity has broke forth in the Neighbourhood of that City, a Calamity which has often threatened its Deſolation, and was fatal to the newly-diſcovered Herculaneum near ſeventeen Centuries ago. In a word, the dreadful Eruptions of Veſuvius are again begun, and have already covered the Fields, for ſeveral Miles round, with Stones, Cinders, and Aſhes. They appear in the uſual manner; in the Day, like vaſt Clouds and Columns of Smoke; and in the Night, with horrible Flames, ſufficient to terrify the People into Devotion.

The Letters from Italy of this Week aſſure us, that as the Gallies of the Italian Powers grow more numerous in the Mediterranean, the Algerines begin to draw nearer their own Coaſts: And that the the Corſicans have at laſt actually ſubmitted to the Marquis de Curſay, but that the Conditions of the Treaty betwixt them are not yet particularly known.

LONDON, June 3.

Yeſterday ſe'nnight the Royal Aſſent was given, among others, to the following Bills, by Virtue of his Majeſty's Commiſſion, directed to the right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Earl Gower, Lord Privy Seal, and his Grace the Duke of Montagu, Maſter General of his Majeſty's Ordnance.

To the Bill for encouraging the People, known by the Name of Unitas Fratrum, to ſettle in his Majeſty's Colonies in America.

To the Bill for the more effectual preventing the Importation and Wear of Foreign Embroidery, Brocade, and of Gold and Silver Thread Lace, or other Work made of Gold and Silver Wire, manufactured in foreign Parts.

To the Bill for applying part of the perſonal Eſtate of Gilbert late Biſhop of Saliſbury, for the purchaſing of Lands or Rents in Perpetuity in Scotland, to be ſettled to ſeveral charitable Uſes and Purpoſes in his Will mentioned.

To the Bill for amending, explaining and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Government of his Majeſty's Ships, Veſſels, and Forces by Sea.

Twenty five Slaves came home in the Crown Man of War, lately arrived from Fez, ſome of which have been 15 Years in Slavery; twenty-ſeven remained to be redeemed when they came away. The Conſul was then treating for their Liberty.

We are informed for certain, that his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle will be inſtalled Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge at the Commencement.

LONDON, July 10.

An Extract of a Letter from a Perſon of Diſtinction at the Hague, dated May 28.

'The Authors of ſome private Letters from Paris have endeavour'd to make one believe, that the Exile of Count de Maurepas was only a feigned Affair, and a Piece of Policy, in order to lull aſleep the Maritime Powers, by making them imagine that the Abſence of this Miniſter would retard the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Marine of France; and that it was to confirm them in this Poſt; that his Poſt was given to M. Rouille, who is by no Means comparable in point of Capacity to his Predeceſſor, who enters quite raw and unexperienc'd, and into the Career of a Buſineſs which he ought to have well ſtudied, before daring to venture upon it. All this may poſſibly be Fact.'

They write from Hanover, that Preparations are actually making at the Royal Palaces, which promiſes them a Viſit ſhortly from a Perſon of high Rank. 'Tis ſaid his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland will honour them with his Preſence, and continue there 'till the Celebration of his Marriage with a certain Princeſs. 'Tis alſo reported, that Prince Frederick of Heſſe, with his Princeſs, deſign to paſs ſome Weeks this Summer at Herrenhauſen.

Letters from Paris adviſe, that the repeated Miſcarriages of the Dauphineſs has given Occaſion to a Scheme being brought on the Carpet, for preventing the Diſorders that would enſue on the Deceaſe of the King and Dauphin without Heirs male, by ſettling the Succeſſion to the French Monarchy, if that ſhould happen, on the Infant Don Philip, Duke of Parma; not as Huſband of Madame the eldeſt Daughter of the King, which the Salick Law would oppoſe, but as a Prince deſcended from the Houſe of Bourbon.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris.

'Give me Leave, Sir, to mention a licenſed Truth. It is a reigning maxim here, that the Navy of France is to be rendered as formidable as the Army of France. All the Victories gained by the latter were only uſeful to her Allies; but the Weakneſs and Diſgraces of the former, fell on France herſelf; and therefore it is reſolved, that, coſt what it will, our Marine ſhall be ſpeedily reſtored.

They write from Paris, that the King has ordered a Number of the different Workmen employed in Ship building immediately to Canada; it having been found by Experience that the Trees in the Foreſts of that Province were extremely proper for converting into Men of War; to effect which, nothing was wanted but Workmen capable of inſtructing the Indians in that Art.

The French King has been pleaſed to declare publickly, that the Count de Maurepas has not been guilty of any Miſdemeanors in his Office.

On Tueſday laſt his Majeſty, attended in council, finally ſet aſide the Affair of the Genoeſe Loſſes in the late Wars.

Among the Preſents deſign'd for the Dey of Algiers, there is the Model of a ſixty-gun Man of War, built at Chatham, ſaid to have coſt 1,200 l; a Chariot of curious Workmanſhip, and two ſets of remarkable fine Horſes.

Saturday the firſt of July is fixed for the Inſtallation of his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle to be Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

We hear that the Earl of Beſborough, of the Kingdom of Ireland, will be created a Peer of Great-Britain.

They write from Genoa that they have received Advice, that the grand Maſter of Malta has ſent two Gallies of the Order, very ſtrongly manned, to cruiſe off the Port of Algiers, with a View of taking ſome of their Corſairs in their Return, as alſo of recovering any Prizes they have made in theſe Seas; which Scheme is ſo much the more like to prove ſucceſsful, ſince the Gallies of the Republic, and thoſe of the Pope, have already compelled moſt of the Privateers to ſteer for their own Coaſts.

The laſt Letters from Berlin informs us, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has had a regular Fit of the Gout, from which he is perfectly recovered; and as his travelling Equipage is preparing, it is thought he will either make a Journey to Cleves, or to Konigſberg, ſpeedily, but to which of the two remains a Secret.

A great many tranſports have been taken into the Government's Service; they are ſaid to be deſign'd for carrying a great Number of German Families to ſettle in the American Colonies.

Edinburgh, May 30. Laſt Week was brought in here, bred in Hopton-parks, an Ox of an extraordinary Size, meaſuring 6 Feet and an half in Height, and 9 Feet 5 Inches in length; he had 15 Stone 12 Pounds of Tallow, and weighed, when dreſs'd for Sale, 100 Stone. We are told his Price was 18 Guineas.
